v. 28. - of the Schools in Thrace, that of Adrianople dates from the end of the 17th c., of Rodosto from 1753, of Madytos from 1784, of Epivatæ from 1796, of Skapor from 1812.

nople, where alone there are no less than 114 Greek schools of all grades, numbering 10,000 pupils. But we consider the two following tables sufficient to establish the purport of these remarks—the thoroughly Hellenic nationality of Thrace and Macedonia.
